The Daily Courant.

Monday, May 15. 1721.

London, May 15.
On Saturday arrived a Mail from France.

Genoa, May 3.

ON the 28th of the last Month, a Ship belonging to this Port, was chafed off of Port Venero by a small Barbary Corsair, but by Favour of the Night, and keeping close to Shore, had the good Fortune to escape being taken. The Letters which arrived here the last Week from Provence say, the Contagion is violent in Aix, and that it still lasts in Marseilles, where Discoveries are daily made of one body or other newly infected, and shewing the same Symptoms of Pestilence as appeared in the Months of August and September last. Toulon continues violently infected, 267 Persons having died there from the 9th to the 9th of the last Month; and 302 from the 9th to the 12th; There are besides 50 Houses newly infected, and several of the chief of the Citizens, Commissaries, and other Officers, are dead, who were appointed to attend at distinct Parts of the City to see the Methods of the Quarantain duly observed; so that many Streets are left unguarded by proper Officers. These Disasters give abundance of Concern to the Magistracy; and many of the Inhabitants judging the Quarantain to be of little or no good Effect, take every Opportunity of escaping into the Country. Another Hospital is intended to be established; those of St. Esprit, and St. Roque not being sufficient. On the 29th of the last Month, two Ships belonging to this Port, laden with Salt and Corn from Sicily, came to an Anchor here, who are to carry back thither 300 Recruits that are marched from the Milanese, to be incorporated in the Regiment of Lucini. On the 1st Instant, a Merchant Ship from England, and two others belonging to this Port, arrived here from Alicante; the latter brings Advices from Catalonia, that the Court of Madrid continued firm in its Resolution of sending Prince Pio, Ambassador Extraordinary to Rome; and that Lewis reported, the Marques de Lede would be appointed Governour of Barcelona in the Room of that Prince. Letters from Lyons of the 16th of the last Month, continue the melancholy Account of the Pestilence raging in Foulon; 350 Persons having died there from the 15th to the 18th, and that the Total of the Inhabitants already dead, is reckoned to be 2000.

Madrid, May 6. On the 1st Instant, being St. Philip's Day, whose Name his Catholick Majesty bears, the Grandees and Foreign Ministers repaired to Aranjuez, to pay the usual Compliments of that Anniversary; and at Night there was a fine Concert of Musick performed in the Queen's Apartment. On the 27th of the last Month Father Gregory de Telles of the Order of St. Francis, was consecrated Bishop of Ciudad Real by the Bishop of Pampelona the Inquisitor General: And on the 4th Instant Don Philip de los Tueros was consecrated Bishop of Cadiz by the Archbishop of Rodes, the Pope's Nuncio at this Court.

Paris, May 21. The Earl of Portmore arrived yesterday from Spain, on his Way to England. Although Count d'Asfeld had obtained the Duke Regent's Leave that the Abbé d'Asfeld might not be sent to Exile, 'tis said however, that Abbé is resolved to go immediately; not to Rochelle, as had been given out, but to St. Florentin in Burgundy. The other Doctors of the Sorbonne who lately received Lettres de Cachet for the same Cause are, Father Boyer, of the Oratory, exiled to Rodhez; the Abbé Tabourin, chief of the College of Lizieux, exiled to Lugon; Father Gatharel, of the Oratory at Aix, exiled to Flanders; the Abbé de Fleury, to Brittany; the Abbé Maillard to Dol in Franche Country; Abbé Begon to Quimper in Brittany; the Abbé de la Chassagne, Director of the Foreign Missions, to Chateau Dun; Father Thierry a Benedictine and the Abbé Bouillon, are gone out of the Kingdom. Mr. Law is removed to Fort l'Evêque.

Prince Dolharuck, the Czar's Ambassador, has ordered a sumptuous Equipage to be got ready; from whence it is believed he will shortly make a publick Entry. An Arrêt will soon be published for procuring the Scrutiny of the Royal Papers to the 15th of next Month; and from that Time to the 1st of July following, the unscrutinized Papers will be retrenched one Third of their Value; and from the 1st of July to the 15th, they are to be retrenched one Half in Value; and after the 15th, the remaining unscrutinized Papers are to be declared Null.

From our heard the Sandwich Islands, May 15. O. S. When Sir John Harris visited the Sandwich Islands with the British Fleet, he sent an Account to the King of Sweden, to acquaint his Majesty with his being come upon the Coast; and as he passed Elfseneur he received a Letter from his Swedish Majesty dated the 15th Instant. The Admiral designs to make Use of the first Opportunity of Wind, to proceed to the Island of Hano near Carlscroon, to join the Swedish Fleet. P. S. The Wind being just now at Eight a-Clock in the Evening come fair, we are getting ready to sail To-morrow Morning early.
